

The English Arts Chorale presents a

Young Singers' Day

Ages 16-26

Are you between 16 and 26 and seriously interested in top-quality choral singing?

Would you like to spend a summer's day singing with other young singers on some of the latest choral music as well as some of the greatest music of past centuries?

When?

Saturday 20th June 2009 from 10.00am until 4.00pm

Where?

St Mary's Church, Chart Lane, Reigate, Surrey - a great place for the singing voice!

What?

A great mix of inspirational music by Lauridsen, Rutter, Tallis, and Rachmaninov. Informal concert at about 3.40pm.

How much?

This day is subsidised by The Music Trust, which keeps your contribution to just £4.50.

What about food & drink?

Bring a picnic or walk into Reigate for lunch. Coffee and tea, biscuits and cake are provided for breaks during morning and afternoon sessions.

How do I sign up?

Email: lizziepeacock@hotmail.com or phone Lizzie on 07752 163029

You can bring payment with you on the day, but please let us know in good time that you are coming so we can try to balance voices.

If so, this day is for you.

LESLIE OLIVE, workshop leader, has conducted professional choirs for BBC radio, is artistic director of The English Arts Chorale, conductor of Stowmarket Chorale (which has appeared on BBC TV), Eye Bach Choir, and the 80-strong young Choir of Colchester Royal Grammar School.
