

Ralph Vaughan Williams

A Sea Symphony

with

A London Symphony

and related folk songs

Elin Pritchard, soprano

Gareth Brynmor John, baritone

Moose Rosser, folk singer

Leslie Olive, conductor

English Arts Chorale

Eye Bach Choir

English Arts Orchestra

RVW
150

EACA is a Registered Charity

DORKING
HALLS

Tickets from £19

8th Oct 19:30

01306 881717

dorkinghalls.co.uk

Elin Pritchard, soprano

Elin is a graduate of the Alexander Gibson Opera School, Royal Conservatoire of Scotland, where she was awarded a Master of Opera with distinction. Her many operatic roles include Tosca for English Touring Opera and Gioielli della Madonna for Opera Holland Park. Elin sings regularly in concert, including with the Royal Philharmonic Orchestra and English Chamber Orchestra.

Gareth Brynmor John, baritone

Winner of the Kathleen Ferrier Award, and Royal Academy of Music Patrons' Award, Gareth is part of the Songsmiths, and sings in the London English Song Festival. He made his debut with Welsh National Opera and has sung with the Bach Choir, Bournemouth Symphony Orchestra and the BBC National Orchestra of Wales. Gareth has recorded a disc of song entitled 'The Children's Hour'.

Moose Rosser, folk singer

Once a boy soprano in a church choir, and dragooned member of the school music society, Moose has been singing folk songs for over 20 years (he has also performed the occasional choral piece) and has appeared at clubs and festivals across the UK and Europe; his preferred musical genre is close harmony, acapella singing, but he still loves being out on his own.

Leslie Olive, conductor

Conductor, composer, educator, festival director and musical visionary, Leslie founded the English Arts Chorale and Orchestra in 1980. A passionate advocate for the power of music in people's lives, his choirs have covered the spectrum from professional choirs for the BBC to his 80-strong boys choir which has sung with the Royal Philharmonic Orchestra and toured Europe.

englisharts.org

eyebachchoir.co.uk

